The restaurant from Soheit-tinlot offers 12 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average $32.5. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Le Coq Aux Champs: Homeopathic portions (entrance and dish) and very different wines: june to 37 euro (too much acidity) and ribeira del duero, (about 50 euro) in my sense too old (2014) having lost all the flavor of the fruit. I greet, however, the inventiveness and the realization of the dishes. I think the wine map should be reduced so that the sommelier can properly manage the information and evolution of these wines. Le Coq Aux Champs from Soheit-tinlot is a cozy café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a hot coffee or a sweet chocolate, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Not to be overlooked is also the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, look forward to the typical delicious French cuisine.
