I stayed here with a group of friends when we did the coast to coast cycle ride raising money for charity.We stayed at a total of 3 hotels along our route and this was by far the best hotel that we stayed at during our ride. The rooms were refurbished to a very good standard and the showers were amazing.The staff were very accomodating and flexible. We had an early start ahead of the hotel's breakfast start timings.... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Black Bull County Kitchen in Wark traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
