Only value regular customers, and despite booking table the landlord refused to give us table as locals were sat there already. Do not consistently enforce Covid regulation. Any other pub in the area would be more friendly and pleasant to visit- don't waste your time or money!!! read more. For those who want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, The George Inn from Elmbridge is a good bar, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive assortment of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. The burgers of this restaurant are among the highlights and are usually served with side dishes such as chips, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges.
