On a day off with Heather, we decided to visit Woodside for breakfast. I had the 3 item roll with sausages bacon and picked egg. Heather had a roll with Haggis, egg, and tattie scone. Both very good taste and value. The coffee was also very good. We have visited several times, and it has always been excellent. read more. What jackie b doesn't like about The Woodhouse Coffee Shop:

Have always enjoyed a trip to Woodside for tea, scone and a blether with friends and today was no exception, until folks with a dog arrived and sat at next table. I am all for dog friendly establishments but this dog, clearly anxious, barked continuously throughout. My friends and I found it very intrusive, making conversation difficult.

Dogs bark sometimes, and I accept it's impossible to stop them barking 100% of the time. read more.
