Extremely good value for such a high end venue. Continental breakfast was standard, but pastries were all stale which was upsetting. Ordered breakfast from menu was really good. Very quiet on a Sunday morning. read more. What MikeA doesn't like about Saint Pauls House:

We booked a lunch slot and discovered they had changed the menu to almost nothing. A very basic choice of perhaps a dozen dishes basically a snack menu, Ok if you want a sandwich and chips otherwise forget it. And this just before Xmas, I can only assume the chef left. This would explain the lack of Xmas parties and the emptiness of the place. We did not order and went down the road to Andersons and had a nice steak.... read more.
