We went here while in Greenock because we heard the vegan options were good and we weren't disappointed.

There was lots of choice and all our curries were delicious. The okra starter was a highlight. The homemade naan bread is vegan and large, very tasty. The person who served us was great with good banter and knowledgeable about the food. It's close to Greenock Central train station and the Premier Inn where we were...

What Kirsten Watson doesn't like about Delhi Deluxe: Went here whilst on a spontaneous pass through Greenock (wouldn't have gone anywhere near if we realised what an actual dive the place was!) It was far from cheap, but the food was ok. I wouldn't rush back. Cash only, but strange these days. They looked busy with takeaway but we were the only table in the restaurant and it was a weekend. This meant that the female owner wouldn't leave us alone the whole time. Wanted to... read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Delhi Deluxe from Greenock, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, One also prepares dishes tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices. The preparation of the meals is done authentically Asian, Don't miss the chance to enjoy the delicious pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an traditional way.
