... so the victoria inn was not only the place for my birthday dinner, but also our first food adventure in cornwall they had quite much pressure on them. the victoria inn is located in the small village perranuthnoe, the victoria inn looks like a traditional village pub from the outside, the only note that it gets about the quality is the variety of accolades displayed in the windows. After he has been conducting some research since then, it turns out that the chef, stew, trained with names like raymond blanc and michael cains, plus, as their website understandably boast, has reached recognition in all important food guides since 1998. pretty impressive qualifications! by tradition. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, tasty vegetarian meals are also in the menu available. Also, there are many timeless British meals on the menu that will satisfy any lover of British cuisine, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
