The restaurant is an incredible hidden gem in London. The best tradition sushi and sashimi I have had in a long time. The quality of the rice was impeccable and the fish was very tasty! If you get the chance to try this restaurant, I would recommend also taking a Shabu Shabu. The service was great and smiley! I felt like I was eating in Japan for an hour.. I look forward to returning back very soon. But make sure to... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What WEN doesn't like about Kiku:

Followed some good reviews and booked for convenience as staying nearby. Not the best meal we have had. Very similar dishes served, despite being the KIKU tasting menu. Lots of prawns, lots of broth and soups. Very basic decor with very Mayfair prices. read more. At Kiku from London you have the opportunity to taste delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed, Besides, the creative blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion. But the undisputed highlight of this place is the tasty Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese dishes cooked.
