While on a city break with a friend to Liverpool, we had caught the ferry across to Birkenhead and wanted to find somewhere for lunch. We can across Alley Cats and decided to try it. We were given a table, which was quite lucky as it was quite full. Orders were taken at the table, but there is counter service for take away options. The menu is fairly limited to breakfast/brunch style options but they do have specials... read more. What User doesn't like about Alley Cats Dining Room Takeaway: I'll be honest, the food is great! The prices are alright too hence not a 1 or 2 star review. Marked it down because I went there and wasn't allowed to sit on a 4 person table when they had loads of tables free. I wanted to have room to read a newspaper for 15 mins on lunch. Instead went to a nearby establishment who were happy to let 1 person sit on a 4 person table. read more.
