What Joesoapreviews likes about The Dolphin: Really great unassuming pub Just sit outside and relax full of locals Always stop there for a swift one when travelling through the town If your hungry just get a pie or pastry from Bonners across the road they will have heat it up and you eat it on the pub Fantastic read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What Riley Collins doesn't like about The Dolphin: We stopped here for lunch on our way home from Devon. We ordered a couple of beers and the tuna baguette melt. There was no melt. When it arrived it was a soupy white mayonnaise on a baguette with only a whiff of tuna. I can honestly say it was the worst lunch I've ever eaten. We would have complained but it was late and we had a long journey ahead and we were so hungry. Surprisingly the chips were excellent!
