...having been given the wrong post code. This seems to be a theme with one of the 'eat' apps, not the delivery drivers fault but meant we waited a while until the poor woman found us having rang us first. Having said that the food was still hot, ready to serve and plentiful. Indeed there's enough for a meal each on another day. Obviously, plentiful doesn't always mean quality, but for us, it was a really good choice. read more. mukhasben doesn't like about Redragon Chinese Fusion:

Both of the above names share the same address so unsure if they've changed names or amalgamated into one restaurant!? Anyhow, we'd tried Redragon from there before and was reasonably happy so it was time for Greendragon. The delivery arrived just on time, hot and ready to serve with a big bag of free prawn crackers.

One beef curry, one chicken and beef curry with salty chilli chips and fried rice were plentiful but... read more. In
