Been in a number of times since the refurb but this time for food, which was excellent. Went for the mixed grill and I was not disappointed. I must say that the young lady who works behind the bar has grown in confidence and was excellent. Not the cheapest but you get what you pay for. Top notch, would highly recommend. read more. What Philip Matthews

doesn't like about Cock Magpie:

Booked a table for eight adults and three children when ordering the meals were told that there was no bacon for the all day breakfast which is bad when your son owns the butchers about half a mile away and no wraps this was only...at in the afternoon hope they can do better next time if I give them a second chance.
