We went for an evening meal on the first day of lockdown easing and it was fantastic. To say the staff were working with a new menu, it was incredibly well managed. Our server Tom was brilliant and nothing was too much for him. The food was top-notch. We shared a board to start which had a nice variety. The pork belly skewer was also very good. Will be returning when the weather is very nice as they have a lovely outdoor... read more.
