Husband and I ate here today by default as the place we were going to go to had no tables. We were so pleased that we did. Both had the homemade steak pie and I had sticky toffee pudding with fabulous carmel sauce and cream all delicious! Excellent value for money lunch as described with coffee and a pint of Stella lager for £30. Staff very pleasant and helpful. Not a fine dining experience but it doesn't pretend to... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WiFi is available for free. What DICCO doesn't like about Finkles: Very, very slow service. Girl serving was on her own with the chef. She was clearly new by the amount of times she delivered the wrong food to the wrong tables. Took 20 mins to get a drink delivered to the table. Food ok, home cooked. Won't go back due to attitude of both staff and the very slow pace, with no acknowledgment. Front of house needs some serious training in etiquette, and a personality. read more. With the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Finkles becomes even more attractive, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the extensive selection of traditional meals and indulge in the taste of England.
