Trying to live up to the hype of Côte and existing great restaurants, AH is still going through teething issues, e.g new staff and the right menu. However, the restaurant has all the right foundations to be successful if given a chance. On a Friday evening the staff tried to be attentive and food was palatable and the ambience was pleasant! Hopefully we can support the local business on its new found journey. read more. What Stefan K

doesn't like about Ask Italian Amersham:

Lovely ambience, attentive staff, but they're still finding their feet. The food was pretty good, I had the beef roast which was cooked excellently but had an unwelcome flavour of thyme overpowering everything. I like thyme with chicken, but not beef. My (7yo)daughter's smashed avocado starter was not smashed, and I chose to believe that the carrots were cooked and that's why they were so soft. When my daughter tired... read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at Ask Italian Amersham, freely at your own will, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Not to be left out is the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
