What an amazing place! Not only a great selection of Italian groceries but amazing fresh deli and Paninis. The customer service there is always five stars and you feel very taken care of. They also always have the best holiday treats for anywhere from Christmas to Easter. One of the best business in Twickenham, five stars is not enough for the great staff and selection. Been to this place several times. The service has never been very fast but generally the food is very good. Visited at the weekend however the service was really slow even though there were many tables available. We got 2 panini. One was burnt on the outside but cold on the inside. The other was just cold. It will be a long time before I return to this place. read more.
