The food was very good. Our mezze of Houmous Kawarma the familiar chickpea and tahini dip, topped with sizzling cubes of grilled lamb and pine nuts was exemplary. The tabouleh was equally good -a thicket of freshly chopped parsley, interspersed with just enough bulgar wheat and topped with diced tomatoes and a good squeeze of lemon juice. read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Amanda King doesn't like about B&k Salt Beef:

Without doubt the best salt beef now in London. Even better than it's parent restaurant in Edgware, because they have more friendly, helpful staff and comparable superb non kosher kosher food. To say it is as good as my mother used to make, is pushing it, though very close! From the salt beef through the tongue, kneidlech soup, chopped liver etc.etc. you will not find fresher higher quality anywhere else. All cooked... read more. The succulent and fresh juices on the drinks menu supremely enhance the meals in the establishment, Besides the fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
