This was not quite the PERFECT bacon sandwich but definitely the best in Brighton and surrounding area. It was also the most expensive at GBP 5.80 including a cup of tea. The bacon was good and I like the the bread which i suspect to be ASDA's Polish Bread. I thought it was well worth the price. Service is friendly too. read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its customers, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What RichardBlakey doesn't like about Crave:

Needed to pass time waiting for visiting time at the hospital. Location: close to hospital on main Eastern Road Small with two main tables and some bar stools. Quick service asked for two shot decaf black americano with a sugar. Tasted really odd; I am guessing was a coffee substitute?chicory based. £2.30. I didn't eat but the food looked good and prices appeared reasonable. I would have commented but waitress was bu... read more. For quick hunger in between, Crave from Brighton and Hove presents delicious sandwiches, healthy salads, and other treats, as well as hot and cold drinks, The guests of the establishment also consider the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the fine, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undeniably closer than one believes, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
