What User likes about Ohaio: The smells from Ohaio got our attention straight away, we decided to order definitely did not regret it, had the cod katsu, it was amazing, freshly prepared tasted so amazing. Will definitely go back there when we are visiting the area again. Definitely recommend this little hole in the wall. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Ohaio:

Ok for a snack. Don't expect much. Not the best ingredients and no traditional recipes followed. It would be ok for a lunch snack but I would not expect it to be a dinner takeaway. The only real nice thing was the sweet chili sauce but that probably was not home made. read more. Ohaio from Kingston upon Thames prepares fine dishes, refined with the known spices and (fish-)sauces of the Thai cuisine, along with plenty of freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus. Ohaio uses a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat for its easily digestible Japanese cuisine, tasty vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available.
