Walked down the river from Tewkesbury The Coalhouse Inn was a lovely place to end up. We had tea and snacks which were great recommend the Whitebait. The real bonus were the proprietors who were amazingly friendly and helpful. Will definitely be back I think they have places to stay so that might be next : Recommended... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What crickleymal2017 doesn't like about The Coal House Inn:

We have visited this pub several times pre pandemic and found it excellent. However our visit tonight was not so good. Nobody was at the bar so we had to wait for 10 minutes before anyone turned up to serve us. All the draught beers and ciders were unavailable so we had to have bottled beer. I asked for Bulmers but was served Magners. We sat in the garden which seemed to be inhabited by screaming kids and their screea... read more. The Coal House Inn from Tewkesbury is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive selection of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Not to be left out is the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the large diversity of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine.
