What User likes about Willow Chippy:

We as a company order from Willows on a regular basis and never has anyone had a bad meal the food is great and the staff exceptionally friendly. I would recommend this to anybody passing go in try and you will return. The willow for people outside the region for me is on par with the Upton Chippy in Lincolnshire. Spot On read more.

The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about the worst chips I have ever had, they were cold hard and the last of the pieces. when he called me to complain and inform me, he accused me of stopping in the books or in the pub on the way to home. write this with my back and mouth coated in fat in the desire that I went into books or pub instead. this was for the first time when I had used Willow, it will not be customer service again was the pits read more. For those who want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Willow Chippy from Wallsend is a good bar, Generally, the dishes are prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you.
