It is a pleasant cafe with plenty of room to sit either inside or out. If the weather is nice enough, you can sit and watch the rapid flow of the River Leven, as it tumbles towards Morecambe Bay. I would strongly suggest that you look carefully at the menu first, rather than head blindly into the queue at the counter. Whilst they have some nice things, some of the prices are bordering on extortion. I was sat enjoying... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available free of charge. What Mike C doesn't like about Cafe Ambio:

Staff were pleasant and the cafe was lovely and clean. Our meals generally were fine apart from the chips which were overcooked and let the meal down. We would go again but probably won't have the chips again. read more.

A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Cafe Ambio in South Lakeland traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here. Of course, we must not forget the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
