We went for a 'end of holiday' family meal. The staff Nathan and Susan in the bar and restaurant were very friendly and there was a relaxed atmosphere in the restaurant. Children's menu is the 'typical' food choice for children, and my daughter enjoyed the chicken nuggets. My son ordered the children's burger which which didn't go down as well. But we could not fault the regular adults menu with a variety of meals to... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What NorrisHatter doesn't like about Devonshire Arms:

Many years of writing reviews (nearly 200 now! has taught me to wait a while before posting reviews where the experience has been unsatisfactory, to ensure some perspective and balance, so this one actually relates to a visit some weeks ago in July. It's a... read more.
