We were lucky to find this lovely pub in a pretty village when the roads nearby were flooded and we were stuck overnight. A very friendly welcome and service from the young staff. Our room (6) was roomy and comfy, and we had a lovely dinner the steak pie was great as was the veggie toad in the hole. Sadly there was a powercut due to the floods so we didn't get to try the breakfast. We'll be stopping off here for lunc... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Stacey Robertson doesn't like about Beyton White Horse Inn:

Menu on the night very different to that advertised on their website. Far less choice. Staff pleasant, especially the young man who brought the food to the table but service extremely slow (understaffed Hygiene variable. One waiter hardly used mask/visor. Table distance and sanitizing good but...should also include the sign I am clean'. Hot food served hot and good quality but had to wait for cutlery and condiments. G... read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Beyton White Horse Inn from Mid Suffolk is a good bar, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
