Just visited for second time equally impressed as our first visit. Excellent home cooked food, good menu choice, including daily specials, prompt service nice beers. Nice to have table cloths proper napkins. Spotlessly clean in dining areas toilets. Plenty of parking...to the side. New menu has just been launch apparently. We will be going back again for sure! Wish we'd discovered it sooner. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Four

Crossroads Inn:

we have booked for the Mother's Day and arrived at our time. when we said who we were the woman behind the bar did not seem to know where we sat and we sat on a table for two people next to each other in a...very dark corner of the bar with a view of the pool table. we waited for what seemed like old before a waitress came and told us that the caries were ready for us. the food looked very inconspicuous, the Broccoli...
