We stopped en-route to the coast at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon to break the journey. Food ordered from the 2 for £11-49 menu arrived promptly served by a very polite waiter. The meals were hot and tasty and well worth the money. As the driver I opted for a cappuccino to drink, duly dispensed by machine, however I found this to be quite weak. Thinking about it I suppose I should've added a shot of espresso. If w... View all feedback. What Lyn N doesn't like about Brewers Fayre Burton House:

For the first time ever rather disappointed today. We booked a table for 4pm. First of all when we placed the order the staff member misheard and only ordered one instead of two, so had to wait for another portion to be cooked. We decided on the carvery, but the choice was very limited. They had run out of two of the three choices of meat, and the only vegetables left were mainly potato. I have to state this was nobo...
