We were warmly welcomed by the patron. The five of us were nicely placed in a quiet setting and could enjoy our drinks while he took down the order. The various starters were beautifully served and we were particularly pleased with the fresh, diverse flavors. Five different main courses were no problem and we finished with a delicious creme brulee or a good filled apple pie We will definitely come back here to enjoy... View all feedback.

What User doesn't like about Downstairs:

My father took the wrong card, this was because the terraces are so close together, a simple mistake. He just pulled the card out of my father's hands without saying a word. My father wasn't served here, and the man insisted that he could have said anything about it in the trend of, "I'm sorry, sir, but you have the wrong card." The owner hadn't been served, he said that my father was rotten to his own country. At th... View all feedback.
