We ate at the Lord Crew whilst staying in Bamburgh during the wild storm Babet. We took shelter from the storm with wines and beers the 1 st afternoon we arrived. The pub/restaurant was warm and inviting and we booked a meal for sat night. The venue was full and busy, but we were shown to our table and orders took straight away. The menu choice was amazing and catered for all tastes, from fish curry to steaks and fis... View all feedback.

What User doesn't like about The Lord Crewe:

we ate here recently during holidays near. I am not sure if the menu was limited because of covid, because the vegan options were just the suppe of the day and the quinoa and beetroot burger. this area is not a vegan hotspot and we were very happy to find this place. I say the burger was absolutely excellent. it was a warm sunny day and the beer garden was a very pleasant place to sit for an hour. View all feedback.
