We come here most weeks on our day off for breakfast and liked it a lot however recently the service in her is so bad...no hello when you walk in. The people who are supposed to be serving are too busy sat in tables slagging other staff off or moaning about who did the till last night because they didn't plug the card reader in. You used to get table service, that seems to have stopped...not sure if that's due to people... View all feedback.
