beautiful restaurant, decor very pleasant on the eye. comfortable and well spaced tables and chairs. with social distancing very safe. that was delicious! massive portions that had beaten me. good choice of weeping, beer and spirituous. the service was before place friendly staff and some very interesting cocktails! all in a very good evening with friends. Having been gifted an afternoon tea for two experience I opted to redeem the voucher at Rossett Hall. Sadly we left with most of our afternoon tea in a takeaway box as we felt just too embarassed having ate very little. Firstly, why would a venue serving afternoon tea choose to play quite loudly the Radio lunch time chat show which today was about dogs and their owners. Surely some pleasant easy listening background... View all feedback.
