My husband I get to the Harvester about twice a month during autumn/winter. Always have the fillet steak as is a good value for the quality. Our waiter Paul is remarkable! He sees my booking and has 'our table' already laid out with wine etc. He also lets me know in advance if the steak is not on the menu to avoid us an unnecessary trip and disappointment. It 's always nice to receive prompt, friendly service well d... View all feedback. What we were there to eat a Cheep family. someone ordered the use as medium, it took a while to come and when it arrived, it was more rare, so it was sent back and we got a new meal, but that took another one. the second steak was still undercooked and chewing, but we just left it. £65 for 3 people to have a dinner and pudding.

User doesn't like about Harvester:
