had a delicious meal in this small Korean/Japanese restaurant in surbiton. had a beautiful Korean camp, followed by edamame, kimchi and crispy sea gras. for my main I had a spicy beef rays that was amazing, perfect amount of seasoned. the kimchi was so good that I got an extra part. the interieur was also really cool! definitely recommend this place. The food tasted great and the stuff was very friendly, however was more expensive compared to 80% small local businesses like this. My girlfriend and I spent 40 pounds but we both weren't full after eating. I would more recommend this restaurant to people who cannot eat a lot. View all feedback.
