We hadn't been to this pub but are very glad we returned. It's extremely cosy and had a lovely fire and is very nicely decorated for Christmas. Very good menu and everything seemed homemade. Two of us had gorgeous venison pie with mash and veg that were perfectly cooked. Friend had roast turkey, also great she said. We finished off with home made bread and butter pudding with custard which was great. Generous portion... View all feedback. What Sue S doesn't like about The Red Lion:

Menu on website has not been updated therefore prices are incorrect. Also completely different menu! We went there because I like vegetables and potatoes with my meal, however the new menu has very little of this choice.

My husbands burger was so dry and inedible. The dogs got lucky! Meals expensive, quality poor View all feedback.
