so many pubs have disappeared from our cities, cities and villages, who are asked to review a new pub in ladbroke grove, feels like a rarer pleasure. I was on a notting hill stay at the glamorous the portobello hotel, so I throttled the grove for an evening meal to the eagle. I found a pub that not only looked like a real alcohol, full of natives who were swallowed in the weekly pub quiz, but freshly brewed trumans b... View all feedback. What Anthony Ash B doesn't like about The Eagle Ladbroke Grove:

Steak was fantastic, but the drunk locals at the bar kinda ruined the ambience. The dining area should be well away from the front bar. And WTF is it with dogs in London. You can't seem to visit any pubs these days without dogs everywhere. Especially around food serving areas. Anyway, great food but the general vibe was a bit off View all feedback.
