a real gem. we came through by chance and loved eating the best Indian we had for everlasting. we tried to arrange a selection and they were all excellent, the children loved the huh ktikka and the lamb korma and my favorite was the spicy fish. the service was great, very attentive, without being intrusive. we'll be back soon. terrible experience! I. experiential! / I wait for my food and everything came cold! the samosas and the brot were tender and disgusting, the chicken corma had tiny chicken pieces in it and tasted nothing but cocos milk, it also had the same resistance! it was more a suppe than anything else! I've read some good reviews, I don't know what happened, but I'll never try again! View all feedback.
