Went here mid-week and it was busy with a decent cross-section of clientele, including groups of elderly and young Chinese. I can see why! The food is really very good and they offer a huge range of dishes. Not sure where the picture of the menu came from on here, but they offer much more than that in house. Definitely going again. The takeaway food we had was pretty ordinary. I know many other places are the same, but I would rather pay more for better quality. The spring rolls were virtually all batter with negligible (literally microscopic) content. There were some surprising quirks too. The main ingredient in the Chicken and Cashew Nuts seemed to be celery! We'll be looking elsewhere.... View all feedback.
