it is a tasty bite for my children to visit mcdonald's and they love it. I think the service has gone with all delivery options, not so much almost food in some nights and a few times the food was cold (on the car by so don't have the time to go back and complain), so was obviously made in advance. our last visit was in order, except that it needed more gherkins! My daughter and I stopped by for a quick bite on a journey from Northampton. The order was quickly filled, and was hot, so not merely a pre-made hotplate deal. It was however typical McDonald's fare, so filling but not spectacular. View all feedback.
