came over this beautiful place while they went through today. the eating was delicious, the staff was friendly and loved the typical land pub and the family feel. very friendly and would definitely visit again. we have traveled from kent, but surely the journey worth visiting again View all feedback. What S G doesn't like about The Queens

Head:

We have previously enjoyed meals here with friends and the standard has always been fairly consistent and good. Sadly, today the standard dipped noticeably. Admittedly it was busy, but we had prebooked well in advance. There was confusion about our booking when we arrived which carried through when different staff served us. Two of the main courses were not particularly hot when they arrived and the fish very salty... View all feedback.
