The chequers is now in the hands of Louis who is making his own unique mark on this ancient pub... the seafood is to die for and Louis gets it fresh. The prices might make you wince a bit but if you can afford a treat, the mussels are amazing...I saw some sea bass coming out too and the portions are large to say the least! Everything cooked and served in a very informal and friendly way. Louis is building a small tea... View all feedback.
