it was stopped a short bite to eat and it was my first visit in over a year because of the pandemic, but was amazed at the renovations. the café area differs from the beginning after a great renovation and it brings fresh life...to the location. it looks like an old-fashioned industry area with tiled walls and glass windows, but it is very beautiful. eating as usual was very nice and all regular staff were also great... After I had heard really great critikens, I decided to make my way away during my trip. I was very disappointed, not only most glasses on my table dirty, but the drinks were very warm. eating is in order, but tastes. good, but that's where it stops. I probably wouldn't return.
