I went to the tom's terrace last night, which I can only imagine is an extension of the tom's kitchen. we reserved an area under the marquee with some beautiful lamps keep us warm from the slightly cool wind. I got my weeping from the guests so not sure what it was, but it was delicious also a selection of canapés including arancini, mini-burger, chicken liver parfait, debriised fish and crabcake. all wonderful and th... What User doesn't like about Tom's Kitchen Somerset House:

When I saw that one of the starters was burrata, I was sold. the creamy cheese itself was wonderful, and I loved the combination with butternut quash, but it was the hazelnut vinaigrette and crushed nuts on the head that it sold to me. it was just perfect. after adding some extra salt at the top, that's it.
