Excellent food cooked by people who really love what they do. Her passion was obvious. They were happy to explain what ingredients were. My wife and I had Hake and it was brilliant. If you're an ice lover, try something here for dessert. If not made at home, then it seems at least crafted and our fellow travelers enjoyed it very much. By the way, the location is excellent and the view of the port and the coast was gr... View all feedback.

What User doesn't like about Lokalt Og Lekkert As:

Part of the Bergen Fish Market. Avoided by the locals for the steep prices, they go somewhere else. It's pretty much a tourist spot. Most main dishes are beyond 25USD per dish, even if you get pasta. Having said that, they have a great selection of craft beers, and you will enjoy one of the best sea-level views of Bergen's port. Food is also usually really good. The Bergen-typical fish soup is amazing here as well. View all feedback.
