The queue was out of the door when we arrived here for a quick lunch but wowww it was worth it. I'll definitely recommend Boojum to my friends who visit Belfast. The staff were really friendly and the burritos were just... 10/10. The only negative is that the tables were a bit messy with food and empty drinks (I suppose it was the lunchtime rush anyway). Firstly I love Boojum I have no less than 4 t-shirts so I feel that leaves me in a situation where I can comment when something wasn't great. Firstly having ordered the new sweet potato and lentil vegan option in a bowl compared to my chicken and chorizo one the portion was literally half the size and as a vegan option with no cheese or sour cream to bulk the box looked half empty. It's great to push the vegan option... View all feedback.
