Den Gode Nabo has established itself as one of Trondheim's most popular pubs since the nineties. Originally a neighborhood pub for residents on this side of the Nidelven river, Den Gode Nabo or "Naboen" as it is often referred to, has maintained its charmingly crooked floors and walls, typical of an old warehouse. This adds to the atmosphere and mood that you can experience on a typical evening at Den Gode Nabo. In the summer, a large floating dock is anchored to the Lekteren where you can enjoy ice-cold refreshments and delicious summer food.
