Built by merchant Oskar Simolin, this former warehouse has stored various goods over the decades, including coffee. Perhaps that's why Porvoon Paahtimo operates in the building. One end of the building borders the river, so during the summer, you can even arrive at Porvoon Paahtimo by boat. In front of the Paahtimo during the summer is the Eväs 12 – barge. From the deck of the barge, you can admire the famous national landscape - Porvoo's shore sheds. Inside the warehouse, there is a unique atmosphere. The over 100-year-old thick original roof beams and red brick walls exude history and tranquility. A sense of peace and reflection permeates the space.
