Mr. Thomas's Chop House is a historic pub established in 1867, described as 'probably Manchester's most venerable pub' by The New York Times. With its charming atmosphere, tiled floors, and dark wood bar, it harks back to Victorian times. The down-to-earth staff provides exceptional pub service while serving typically British food made with the best local ingredients. Guests can enjoy old favorites with a dash of sophistication, complemented by a pint of excellent real ale.
