For changing offers, please contact the restaurant owner directly. You can also contact them through their website. Nestled on the border of the South Downs National Park, across from the stunning grounds of Petworth House, The Stonemasons Inn, established in 1630, offers a unique and relaxed dining experience in a charming rustic Olde-English setting with three Inglenook fireplaces. Our talented chefs, led by Head Chef James Bicknell, who previously worked as a Sous Chef for Marco Pierre White for over four years, are dedicated to using fresh, organic British produce. With a background in numerous Rosette-awarded restaurants, Chef Bicknell infuses classic British French cuisine with a modern twist to create delicious and visually appealing dishes. The Stonemasons Inn is proud to hold the Cask Marque Excellence Award for its cask ales and is featured in the prestigious CAMRA Best Beer Guide.
