While some found issues with the quality of food and service, such as dry chips and fish and slow cooking times, others had nothing but praise. Compliments focused on the friendly staff, large portions of delicious food, and welcoming atmosphere. Customers raved about the fish and chips, kebabs, and chips being the best in the area. Many appreciated the personalized service and felt like valued customers. Despite some negative experiences, the restaurant seemed to have a loyal following and was a popular spot for locals and visitors alike.
