The online reviews for River Village in Erskine are mixed, with some customers praising the tasty food, fast delivery, and friendly service. However, others have complained about issues like cold, soggy, or poorly prepared dishes, as well as concerns about hygiene and cross-contamination. While some long-time customers have had hit and miss experiences, newer customers have expressed delight with their meals. Prices have been noted as somewhat high, and some reviewers have vowed not to return to the restaurant. Overall, the reviews paint a picture of a restaurant with both strengths and weaknesses that potential diners should consider before ordering.
