Jackie and Ian invite you to visit the Blue Bell independent Free House in Kirby Hill. This historic 19th-century coaching inn, located just off the A1 between London and Edinburgh, offers a picturesque setting in the village of Kirby Hill. The building even housed its own prison cell in days gone by, where officers would enjoy a pint or two. The pub features a large south-facing beer garden with a heated pergola, real fires, and ample parking. We offer a diverse selection of high-quality real ales, continental beers, wine, and delicious food, all served with a warm and friendly smile.
